

Rocky Mountain Conference United Church of Christ

Funding Associate (Contractor)

About the Rocky Mountain Conference, United Church of Christ

A collective of 71 churches across Colorado, Western Wyoming, and Utah, the Rocky Mountain Conference of the United Church of Christ holds open a space for equanimity, wholeness, justice, and inclusion in each community it serves. (www.RMCUCC.org)

Seeking to embolden the people in our churches - and within reach outside our doors - the Rocky Mountain Conference exists to inspire, challenge, and empower generous faith and justice communities across the West.

As a part of the wider United Church of Christ, our churches are largely faithful progressives who take bold and prophetic stands on rights for the historically marginalized (non-white race/ethnicity, LGBTQ, disabled populations, and those with mental illness, to name a few). Our collective mission is to create a just world for all. (www.UCC.org)

Position Summary

The Rocky Mountain Conference is seeking a professional fundraiser to design and launch three campaign initiatives in 2018/2019. This is a contract position for a clever go-getter with proven ability to design and launch fundraising campaigns that produce results.

Scope of Work

Coordinating development work through the Conference Minister, the Funding Associate will collaborate with other communications and staff members to design/re-tune, launch and run three major initiatives within the Rocky Mountain Conference in 2018/2019:

- Our Church's Wider Mission
- Friends of the Conference
- Planned Giving

Education and Experience

- College degree required; advanced degree preferred.
- Five year track record of successful funding campaign design and launch, accompanied by statistical results and references.

Competencies and Qualifications

- Facile with social media and web technology as applied to the fundraising endeavor; build upon and help optimize current platforms for increased funding capability.
- Self-starter who can work both independently and collaboratively; hard worker with high energy with a willingness to work hands-on in achieving stated goals.
- Possess excellent oral and written communications skills.
- As a contract agent, provides own workspace and technology (cell phone, portable computer, internet). Will have access to internet, printers, and temporary office space when visiting Denver office, although permanent office space not provided.

Compensation

Commensurate with experience and proven record of success.

How to Apply

Send the following documents in PDF form to: RMCForward2024@gmail.com by Wednesday, May 9, 2018:

- A compelling cover letter explaining your interest in the position and our organization to the attention of Conference Minister, Rev. Sue Artt;
- Resume;
- Campaign writing sample;
- Statistics and references from at least three successful campaigns, including one former supervisor. (RMC will not contact references without first checking with the applicant).

Rocky Mountain Conference
United Church of Christ
1140 W. 5th Avenue
Denver, Colorado 80204