

Music Openings Parkview Congregational United Church of Christ

Parkview Congregational Church UCC is a diverse, steadily growing, progressive, Open and Affirming, Christian church situated in the Lyn Knoll/Del Mar neighborhood of Aurora, CO. For more information about our church, please visit our website: www.parkviewucc.org

Our music program currently consists of a 15-20 person Adult Sanctuary Choir, 3 octave Handbell Choir, and other special ensembles. We have an accomplished pianist who works with our Sanctuary Choir and offers other special music. We also have a guitar player and an organist who each lead worship on a bi-monthly basis.

We are currently looking for 2 individuals to fulfill the music duties within our church. We are open to various combinations of skill sets in order to create the best possible musical team. The ideal candidates will be familiar with traditional and contemporary worship music. The selected individuals will be fulfilling the following duties:

- In cooperation with the Co-Pastors and other worship leaders, coordinate all aspects of the music portion of worship throughout the year. Plan special music for all worship services, including special services connected with, but not limited to, Advent and Lenten seasons. Music included within the worship service may involve the choirs, ensembles, youth, soloists, and guest musicians. The hour expectation would be 7 hours weekly.
- Select music for and direct the Sanctuary Choir. The Choir currently offers music year round while only meeting once in months of May, June, and July. Rehearsals for the choir are on Wednesday nights 7:15pm to 8:15pm. Sunday morning rehearsals (when the Choir is singing for worship) are generally from 9:00am– 9:15am.
- Select music for and direct the Handbell Choir. The Handbell Choir currently offers music from September – May. Rehearsals for the Handbell Choir are on Wednesday nights from 6:00pm to 7:00pm. The Handbell Choir generally plays one Sunday per month, with the Sunday morning rehearsal generally from 9:00am to 9:15am.
- In collaboration with the Co-Pastors and our Faith Formation Coordinator, the Children and Youth Music Coordinator will create an innovative and engaging musical offerings and instruction for our children and youth as part of our Sunday morning offerings. Hours will vary seasonally and will be hired as a contract position with 3 hours a month for 12 months as the base pay.

We recognize not all candidates will have experience or interest in all areas listed above. If you are excited about some of the responsibilities above, please submit your resume with your skills and responsibilities that you are willing to perform. We are seeking dynamic, team-oriented people, passionate about a wide variety of church music, who love diverse worship experiences and people from all walks of life.

Pay will be commensurate with experience and duties performed by each individual selected, but the positions will be structured with 7 hours weekly for the Adult choirs. The Children and Youth Music Coordinator will be a contract position and hours will vary seasonally with 3 hours a month for 12 months as the base pay.

To apply: Please submit resume and direct all inquiries to Susan Houser, our Communications Coordinator, at office@parkviewucc.org.
