

Living for a Reason: Trust, Purpose, Hope.

Sr. and Jr. High Fall Spirit Spark Retreat
November 3–5 at La Foret

This fall, campers from all over the Rocky Mountain Conference will join together in the Black Forest, creating a radically loving, sacred, and joyful community.

The theme: Living for a Reason: Trust, Purpose, Hope.

As we spend a weekend building this sacred community, we will be exploring some of the spiritual practices of the Christian tradition—and at the same time, inviting campers to dig deep to discern what they believe, and why they believe it.

Along with facilitating powerful discussions, our vetted, trained, and committed staff will plan and lead games, arts & crafts, music, worship, a dance, experiences in nature, and so much more.
