

Calvary Presbyterian Church, Denver, seeks a permanent, part-time pastor (20 hrs/week, $30-35,000 effective salary with benefits) to lead our forward-looking, resilient and non-judgmental congregation.

We sold our building over 10 years ago, and use these funds (our Legacy Tithe) to support partners in ministry locally and internationally. Our worship style is interactive and includes participation from those who worship via Zoom in our sermon response time, prayers and poetry readings. In-person and Zoom attendance averages 32 per Sunday.

If you are a collegial leader, excellent communicator, engaging preacher, and a sincere, compassionate person we would love to hear from you!
